SANTA CLAUS, THE GREAT PUMPKIN, EFFECTIVE AIRLINE SECURITY, AND OTHER MYTHS WE TELL OUR CHILDREN

LAWRENCE A. HUSICK
Senior Fellow, FPRI
Center on Terrorism, Counter-Terrorism, and Homeland Security

Date: Thursday, September 14, 2006
Time: 11:30 reception, 12:00 lunch, 12:40 program
Place: Waynesborough Country Club, 440 Darby-Paoli Road, Paoli

After the disruption of Islamist plans to bring down commercial aircraft flying from Great Britain to the United States in August, and imposition of strict new security rules prohibiting hand luggage, liquids, gels, and other materials, it appears that airline safety and security have again responded to threats and that we are safer than before. Nothing could be further from the truth. Mr. Husick will discuss the hows and whys of our failure to implement effective security and disaster planning, not only for air travel, but for the rest of our nation as well.

$30 for members of WACGVF and FPRI, $35 for others
